

University of Basra
Faculty of Fine Arts
Department of Performing Arts
Improvement plan

For the academic year
2021-2022

The improvement plan submitted by the Department of performing arts, based on the above indicators and weaknesses and strengths, according to the national accreditation standards for colleges of fine and Applied Arts, for the next academic year, and according to the following :

- Coordination with the colleges of Fine Arts in (Baghdad, Babylon, Mosul, Erbil, Duhok) for the exchange of scientific experiences, by exchanging the two debates according to the exact scientific disciplines . As well as supervised supervision between the disciplines of these faculties, to enhance the scientific role and exchange experiences.

- Participate in theatrical festivals held in the country, or abroad, with theatrical works by students, or teachers, and encourage work on those participations .

- Seeking to establish a relationship of interaction with the advisory office at the college, and activating the role of the Performing Arts Department in providing the artistic arena with promising theatrical talents.

- Continue to distribute the evaluation forms for teachers by students , and follow up and analyze their scientific data to benefit from them in the evaluation of professors in the Department .

- Continue to support the scientific participation of graduate students or teaching staff in internal and external scientific conferences .

- Participation in technical and scientific courses, workshops and seminars, by graduate students and teaching staff.

- Support the publication of scientific research in international and international capacities, by graduate students, supervisors, and teaching staff.

- Guidance to the teaching staff by activating their personal accounts on the college's website and the University's website and providing it with research, scientific studies and technical activities.

- The Department seeks to contribute to the establishment of a special student club at the Faculty of Fine Arts, as well as a club for faculty and Department professors.

- Diligent and continuous follow-up of the students of the department, from the residents of the internal departments of the Iraqi provinces, as a liaison supervisor has been appointed from the department to follow up these students.

Approval of the dean of the faculty

Assistant Professor Dr

Ali Abdullah Aboud al-Kanani