

The republic of Iraq

Ministry of higher education & scientific research

University of Basrah

Department of quality assurance & university performance

Scientific department:

Stage:

Subject:

Lecturer Name:

Student evaluation of college members (student satisfaction)

| N. | Paragraphs  | Excellent | Very good | good | middle | Accepted |
|----|---|-----------|-----------|------|--------|----------|
| 1  | He welcomes discussion and accepts the other point of view                                |           |           |      |        |          |
| 2  | It discusses the wrong answers of the students with flexibility and correct them          |           |           |      |        |          |
| 3  | The students develop with benign attitudes, customs and creatures                         |           |           |      |        |          |
| 4  | A variety of teaching methods are used to attract student's attention to the lesson topic |           |           |      |        |          |
| 5  | It uses various reinforcement methods to motivate students                                |           |           |      |        |          |
| 6  | His ability to manage time to lecture and adhere to dates                                 |           |           |      |        |          |
| 7  | Students stimulate the review of the references of the different scientific subject       |           |           |      |        |          |
| 8  | The student feels keen on them and the desire for their benefit                           |           |           |      |        |          |
| 9  | It varies the questions and takes into account the right time to ask them during Lecture  |           |           |      |        |          |
| 10 | The student's weaknesses are treated in the subject, and strengthening their strengths    |           |           |      |        |          |

