

10. CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- 10.1 Medical colleges must recognize the need for continuing professional development for health professionals and the community.
- 10.2 The college must have a written plan on continuing professional development that is known to faculty and staff.
- 10.3 The college must ensure that faculty members are participating actively in continuing professional development. Regular symposiums, workshops and conferences should be organized to fulfill these needs.

10. CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT.

10.1. The College has a written plan on CME and CPD.

10.2. The CPD plan is known to faculty and staff.

10.3.1. The college must ensure that faculty members are participating actively in CPD

10.3.2. Regular symposiums, workshops and conferences should be organized to fulfill the CME and CPD plan

Proposed tools for evidence generation; Continuing Professional Development.

presentation	Components	Target	Tools	Indica
Description	document of annual CPD&CME plan	Doc.	Verifi	10..1

% yes ,no	(interview and/or questionnaire to faculties and staff	faculty	Ques	10.2.
Description	document of regulation to ensure active participation of faculty	Doc.	Verifi	10.3.1
Description	document of annual scientific activities	Doc.	Verfi.	10.3.2

Description of the requested Documents:

10.1. Document of annual CPD&CME plan

10.3.1. Document of regulation to ensure active participation of faculty

10.3.2. Document of annual scientific activities

Scoring of continuing medical education.

NF	PF	FF	Indicators No.	Ind No	No
			The College has a written plan on CME and CPD.	10.1.	1
			The CPD plan is known to faculty and staff.	10.2.	2
			The college must ensure that faculty members are participating actively in continuing professional development	10.3.1	3
			Regular symposiums, workshops and conferences should be organized to fulfill the CME and CPD plan	10.3.2	4
			Total score =(FF=2, PF=1, NF=0)		